

BWS Parent-Teacher & Parent Education Night

On November 9th, the parents of current Bridge Way students were invited to the school to meet all the teachers and learn more about adolescent addiction and recovery. Organized by English/Social Studies Teacher Miriah Rutledge and Counseling Intern Amy Ecklund with assistance from Director of Intervention Services Beth Cusack, the evening was fun and informative. The second part of the evening was about Parent education and featured guest Jake Neff, a local therapist, along with our own Beth Cusack and Amy Ecklund. Jake specializes in working with adolescents and families who are impacted by drugs and alcohol. He, Beth and Amy facilitated a forum on the challenges teens and families in early recovery face when DONATE NOW! Bridge Way continues to need your support to continue providing scholarships to students and to enrich our programming. Visit www.thebridgewayschool.org. Our United Way # is 50602.

Did you know you can donate to Bridge Way EVERY time you shop at Amazon by designating the Greater Philadelphia Association for Recovery Education as your charity of choice and then do nothing but shop as you usually do! We will then receive 0.5% of your purchases as a donation. Just go to smile.amazon.com, designate GPARE and get started shopping today!

a student returns to school. We hope this was just the first of several parent information nights at Bridge Way. Stay posted!

#GIVINGTUESDAY™

Tuesday December 1st is the 4th annual Giving Tuesday. What is #GivingTuesday exactly? It's a national movement during the holidays dedicated to charitable giving, similar to how Black Friday and Cyber Monday have become days that are synonymous with holiday shopping. So Please Consider donating to the Bridge Way School this Giving Tuesday. Click here to donate and thank you.

...donations are always welcome

A BIG thank you to everyone who supported our Art in the Afternoon fundraiser on Saturday October 10th. Special thanks to Jan Ambrose, and to the musicians: Roadshow Relics & SwUKEstra; and all the

The Bridge Way School is always grateful for the thoughtful donations it receives. Recently, generous donors John and Kevin Gallen of Ethosource in King of Prussia donated classroom and lounge chairs. Tammy White, another supporter of Bridge Way, gave us a love-seat for the lounge and a desk for the office. A big thanks to them! If you or your company is looking to find a new home for any lightly used furniture or equipment, we hope you will think of us. You can contact us for more details or specific things we are in need of at office@thebridgewayschool.org or 267-437-2194.
